1. Net sales were up by 163.12% to Rs 357.92 crores in Q1FY09 over Q1FY08. This was due to higher capacity utilization, increase in realizations and rupee depreciating on Y-o-Y basis.
2. The Operating Margins (OPM) of the company stood at 18.24% for Q1FY09 in comparison to 14.20% in the same period last year. The margins increase was due to a combination of increase in realisations and rupee depreciation.
3. Profit After Tax (PAT) for the company has increased by 233 times to Rs. 28.09 crores in Q1FY09 over Q1FY08. This was due to higher OPMs. Interest cost was however up by 57.60% due to higher working capital requirements.

Outlook & Recommendation

KRBL, with a major market share in India and abroad, will benefit from increasing exports, strong brand value and better product mix in the future. We believe that the company having a long experience and a healthy track record, will be able to achieve sustainable growth in the years to come. However, foreign exchange fluctuations will always be a concern for the company as 52% of the its revenues are from export market.
